STATEMENT

I was captured on 16 May 1992 in my family home in the village of Čumavići, Srebrenica, together with my whole family and other residents of the village, a total of 35 men, women, and children. There were also underage children (Ljilja, born in 1989, was the youngest).

I was pregnant, and in that condition I was held in Pilićarnik, without basic hygiene conditions. It was horrific. One night, they drove us women into the house of Sabit Efendić; they probably wanted to murder the men that night.

I was exchanged on the Žuti most on 13 June 1992.

I give this statement voluntarily!]
